

BUCKEYE BREEZE M&RCH 2024

Hello Sisters,

Well, here we are March! February was a very busy month. The first weekend I was in Zanesville for their charity meat raffle. I had never been to one before but what fun. They did an excellent job raising a lot of money for 4 charities.

February 10th we had our NEZ Prep meeting in North Canton. There was a wonderful turnout. North Canton is in the middle of a remodel and it sure is going to be beautiful when they are done.

February 17th I attended an anniversary for Lakeshore #2243 in Geneva, Ohio. I was able to get out there a little early to enjoy the beautiful sights of the lakeshore. Stopped at the Firehouse winery which was a very unique little place before I headed over to The Lodge to check in. The view from the room was gorgeous. Once I arrived at the Aerie home I was greeted by so many Brothers and Sisters. Their hospitality was top notch. We had a cocktail hour at 5 followed by a fabulous dinner. What a site to see the number of Brothers that attended the dinner to support their auxiliary. Great Job Lakeshore and thank you for a wonderful weekend and the generous donation to my charity.

The rest of the month was a whirlwind of running around helping troubled auxiliaries and starting to prepare for state convention. Sisters please keep an eye out for your state convention packets.

Thank you to all the auxiliaries that have been working hard to get off the compliance list. It is starting to shrink and I appreciate it.

On a sad note we received a resignation letter from State CZ Trustee Anita Kennedy. We wish her the very best. PSP, Leisa Oiler has been appointed to fulfill the rest of the term.

Have some busy weeks ahead with traveling. Hope everyone is getting to enjoy some of the sunshine we have had lately.

Until next month I'll see you somewhere down the trail. Your Explorer,

Stacey

AND HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND ANNIVERSARIES TO ALL OUR OTHER SISTERS WHO ARE CELEBRATING IN APRIL!

Letter from your Puffin:

Well, according to Punxsutawney Phil, we should be having an early spring. Though, if you are like me, living in NE Ohio, we will see what the weather looks like minute to minute. I do hope everyone has been finding the Buckeye Breeze helpful and informational. Last month, I included descriptions of each of the categories for ritual competition so if you are interested in learning and competing in the future, you can best know what each team would entail. Also, the ritual school will be hosted by Crestline in April and even if you are not a competitor or a judge, you may attend and see what all it may entail. Plus, you get to see all your auxiliary sisters.

Just reminding everyone, you may send me flyers for upcoming events to help you advertise them. Don't hesitate and I will get them on the Buckeye Breeze Facebook page as well. Hope to see all my sisters soon.

Love always, Kelly Beech
